JEANNE G. GUMATA
CLERK OF COURT

JOSHUA J.C. ULLOA,
Petitioner,

Civil No. _____

vs.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Respondent.

MOTION REQUESTING EXTENSION OF TIME

COMES NOW, JOSHUA J.C. ULLOA, (Hereinafter "Petitioner"), pro-se, an incarcerated federal prisoner presently housed at the United States Penitentiary located in LOMPOC, California, hereby moves this Court for an Extension of Time.

Petitioner submits the instant motion based on his circumstances presently impeding his ability to competently Reply to the Court's Order To Show Cause.

The Federal Bureau of Prisons has ordered Petitioner be transferred from FCC Lompoc, to a institution presently unknown to Petitioner in Order for him to participate in the 500 hr. drug program. Accordingly, Petitioner has been instructed to pre-pack all property and legal documents and provide to staff. In other words, Petitioner is separated from his legal documents pertaining to this matter. The BOP forwards property and legal documents separately from ~~prisoner~~ transportation.

Petitioner is confronted with two other obstacles: First, inmates being transferred can be in transit from 2 weeks to 5 weeks depending on the destination. Second, Inmates usually do not receive their property until 30-45 days after arriving at the receiving institution.

As such, Petitioner is separated from his legal documents, and respectfully request an extension of time ranging from 45 to 60 days to respond competently with exhibits and a comprehensible brief.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing fact Petitioner is in transit and

Separated from his legal documents, Petitioner prays this Honorable Court grant his request for an 60 day extension of time.

Date: May 13, 2011.

Respectfully Submitted,
Joshua J. C. Ulloa
Joshua J.C. Ulloa, pro se.

Re: Joshua J.C. Ulloa v. USA, Civil No. _____:

Dear Clerk of Court;

Good Morning! I previously forwarded a letter notifying the Court that the FBOP had placed me in transit to an ~~UNKNOWN~~ known destination. I believe I'm being transferred to the 500 hr. drug program, as I am seperated from my property I'm forced to file a motion requesting an extension of time.

Lastly, please do not forward any other correspondence to the address above, I'm only using it as it is my last known address. I thank you in advance for your assistance.

Sincerely,
Joshua J.C. Ulloa.
JOSHUA J.C. Ulloa, pro-se.
